ORANGE COUNTY MAN RECEIVES LENGTHY SENTENCE FOR CHILD PORNOGRAPHY

(Beaumont, TX) A 49-year-old West Orange man has been sentenced to 188 months in federal prison for sexual exploitation of a child and possession of child pornography in the Eastern District of Texas. ROBERT EUGENE SCHREIBER was sentenced late last week by United States District Judge Marcia Crone.

United States Attorney Matthew D. Orwig was pleased with the sentence, "The creation and distribution of child pornography is a despicable act that robs a child of their dignity and innocence. The defendant deserves every day of this sentence."

According to information presented in court, the West Orange Police Department received information in October 2004 that Schreiber had forced a minor child to pose for pornographic photographs. A search was conducted at Schreiber's residence and authorities recovered a digital camera and images depicting child pornography. They also discovered a computer, video camera and numerous compact discs and video tapes containing images of child pornography.

Schreiber was indicted for Sexual Exploitation of a Child and Possession of Materials Containing Child Pornography. He pleaded guilty to the charges on November 22, 2005.

The case was investigated by the West Orange Police Department and the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement. The case was prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney Randall Fluke.
